PARADOX RESOLUTION

A Spider Webb Novel

by K. A. Bedford

Spider simply wants to get on with his life. He's a hard working Australian bloke — a good man in a bad situation who is willing to do almost anything to regain his self-respect and the affection of his nearly ex-wife, Molly; a mad sculptress on her way to international fame and fortune.

Spider's life and his world are changing. After quitting the Western Australian Police Service, Spider studied to become a time machine repair mechanic, eking out a sparse living fixing broken down machines. But the repair business isn't what it used to be. Once, time machines were as big as cars; but now they're smaller and compact, portable, and cost too much to get fixed so it's easier for people to simply buy a new one. Times are tough and there is no end in sight.

Meanwhile, Spider's new boss at the Time Machines Repaired While-U-Wait franchise needs help: his secretly built, totally illegal, radically overclocked, hotrod time machine has been stolen, and Spider is the right man to get it back before it falls into the wrong hands, or worse inadvertently destroys the entire universe.

Spider's journey begins with a simple favor to help his almost ex-wife, Molly, and moves to the icy wastes of the far, far future.

Surprise and shock are the only constants in Spider's life; why should this job be any different?

Praise for K. A. Bedford

"Time Machines Repaires While-U-Wait reads like a good, old 1950s story by Fredric Brown or William Tenn story. I'm a huge fan of those master writers, so I enjoyed reading this homage to a long lost (but never forgotten) past." — Fabio Fernandes, Fantasy Book Critic

WILDCATTER

by Dave Duncan

“As long as there is money to be made, there will be Wildcatters.”

— Dave Duncan

Throughout human history wildcatters, the first great explorers and prospectors to lay claim to newly discovered lands, have marched to the beat of a different drummer — motivated by a deep yearning to be the first to walk on uncharted land and benefit from treasures yet to be discovered.

In the future, wildcatters in space will travel to exoplanets, located in The Big Nothing, to search for new chemicals which, when transformed into pharmaceuticals, will bring untold wealth and fame to the individuals and corporations that stake their claim for exclusive exploitation rights. Such is the quest of the crew of the independent starship Golden Hind, whose mission is to travel a year and a half to “Cacafuego”, beat the larger corporations to the exoplanets’ resources, and strike it rich for themselves. But will a yellow warning flag, planted above the planet, stop them? Or will the Golden Hind’s prospector foray to the planet’s surface, possibly to never return alive?

Wildcatter is a raucous tale of mystery, greed and passion, told by master story teller Dave Duncan, once himself a for-real wildcatter!

Praise for Dave Duncan

“Dave Duncan writes rollicking adventure novels filled with subtle characterization and made bitter-sweet by an underlying darkness. Without striving for grand effects or momentous meetings between genres, he has produced one excellent book after another.” — Locus

TESSERACTS SIXTEEN

Parnassus Unbound

edited by Mark Leslie

The theme of Tesseracts Sixteen series is speculative fiction inspired by literature, music, art and culture.

Each year EDGE Science Fiction and Fantasy Publishing chooses a team of editors — which keeps the collections fresh, new and ever changing — from among the best of Canada's writers, publishers and critics. The editors then select innovative and futuristic short fiction and poetry from established and emerging voices of Canadian speculative fiction. Since its publication in 1985, more than 279 Canadian authors, editors, translators and special guests have contributed 541 short stories and poems to the series.

Each volume of the Tesseracts series features established as well as emerging authors. Some of Canada's best known fiction writers have been published within the pages of these volumes

The entire series includes Tesseracts One through Sixteen, plus Tesseracts Q, which features translations of works by some of Canada's top francophone writers of science fiction and fantasy.

Tesseracts Sixteen: Parnassus Unbound* features works by:

Neil Peart & Kevin J. Anderson, Robert J. Sawyer, Ryan Oakley, Steve Vernon, Hugh A. D. EVOLVE TWO

Vampire Stories of the Future Undead

edited by Nancy Kilpatrick

Come watch while two species,
human and vampire,
experience a parallel evolution.

Locked in eternal conflict of prey and predator, the passage of time creates a whole new species of vampire. Still a predator, still a monster, still fascinating and terrifying ... but what changes will the archetype withstand? Could the vampire become our hope in a post-apocalyptic world? Hot on the heels of the bestseller Evolve: Vampire Stories of the New Undead, Nancy Kilpatrick does it again with twenty-two original stories that explore the evolution of vampires through the apocalypse and beyond.

TECHNICOLOR ULTRA MALL

by Ryan Oakley

The world's ecosystems have been destroyed by genetic pollution and cities have evolved into mega malls.

Looking for a suckerpunch of a novel? Then you've come to the right place. While Technicolor Ultra Mall is not for the weak of heart or the easily offended, it will knock the socks off those readers brave enough to indulge. With cities having devolved into huge shopping mall complexes of various levels — physically and socially — this dystopic novel explores the value of being human in a completely commodified world.

"Oakley isn't so much concerned with what science fiction has been, but rather where it can go. And, unlike most of his contemporaries, he doesn't just write from his head, but from his gut. His work somehow manages to be both unsettling and deeply absorbing."

— Jeff Lemire, award winning DC graphic novelist

RIGOR AMORTIS

edited by Jaym Gates and Erika Holt

Horror and erotica. Zombies and romance.

Who knew zombies had a love life? The proof is in the pudding — brain pudding, that is. These flash stories cover horror, love, and lust, some with humour, others with a serious or even sentimental bent. While editors warn there aren't many unturned stones in this collection, you will certainly change your view of both zombies and erotica for some time to come.

"Rigor Amortis is an excellent collection. This is one of those rare books in which every story is tight and stays true to the purpose of the work." — Brit

THOSE WHO FIGHT MONSTERS

Tales of Occult Detectives

edited by Justin Gustainis

Got Vampires? Ghosts? Monsters? We Can Help!

For the followers of various fictional occult detectives, from Carrie Vaughn's Jessi Hardin to Tanya Huff's Tony Foster and many more. These familiar faces are the heroes we depend on to fight the things that go bump in the night. 14 sleuths all gathered from their usual novel hangouts to appear in brand new, all-original stories of this anthology.

"Like a diabolical box of chocolates, this collection of urban fantasy treats is all-dark, all-delicious, and all-dangerous. Longtime fans and new readers alike will devour every last page — and be left drooling for more."

POCK'S WORLD

by Dave Duncan

Another classic from a master storyteller.

Dave Duncan brings us another fascinating ride through his spectacular imagination, twisting away from tired science fiction tropes to bring us a fascinating political mystery adventure involving far-off human colonies and aliens bent on human domination.

“What an excellent read! This book is fast paced and gripping. It is set in a well thought out world with interesting and complex characters in a challenging situation. It is a feast for the imagination — thoughtful with parallels in modern life on the nature of race and prejudice.” — Wayne Harris, Albedo One - Reviews

THE OKAL REL SAGA

by Lynda Williams

The Okal Rel saga features two evolved human societies, Gelacks and Reetions. The Gelacks are the descendants of a bioengineering project that modified humans to tolerate faster than light space travel. The Reetions are unmodified but racially melded humans whose social system depends upon transparency and whose legal system depends upon an artificial intelligence. Seven of the ten novels have been published to date.

HEIRS OF A BROKEN LAND SERIES

by Marie Bilodeau

"Marie Bilodeau is a fabulous writer. She writes lyrical, compelling prose, and fully rounded, believable characters. The Heirs of a Broken Land series is fresh and exciting, and Bilodeau is a major new star."

— Robert J. Sawyer, Hugo Award-winning author of WAKE

Book One: Princess of Light

The Wall of Loss separating the lands of light and darkness is failing...

Despite her attempts to stop them, dark creatures invade Princess Cassara Edoline's small and almost forgotten kingdom, murdering her family and taking her younger brother captive. Torn by guilt and clutching an amulet of powerful magic, she vows to rescue her brother and save as many as possible from the invading hordes. But first, she must find out what is causing the thousand-year-old magic of the Wall to fail, and stop it if she can.

As Cassara's resolve and strength are mercilessly tested and her shaky alliances begin to crumble, she must find a way to either master her newfound powers, which promise both salvation and destruction, or watch her beloved land be consumed by darkness and death.

BROKEN TIME BLUES

Fantastic Tales in the Roaring '20s

edited by Jaym Gates and Erika Holt

The roaring twenties receive a whole new spin in Broken Time Blues. Short and sordid, full of glam and glitz, these stories reflect the realities of recovering from WWI while bombarded with massive immigration, innovation, and cultural change. In these twelve provocative stories you will find flappers and jazz stars, ugly racial inequalities, veterans in hidden gin joints, bootleggers with fast cars and faster tongues, and much, much more.

PANDORA'S BOX

by Nathan Marchand

For fans of military science fiction, Pandora's Box is a plot both new and old, with familiar themes that are delivered with a breath of fresh air. Survival, betrayal, trust and forgiveness — all are explored as a spoiled military brat struggles through vengeance and redemption to protect a military project called Pandora's Box.

FUTURA

by David Laake

A peaceful relationship with the Insect civilizations has turned sour, bringing inter-galactic war, and it appears to some that there is a cover-up going on. For SF readers that enjoy tales of conspiracy and mission-impossible codes of honor, Futura is an edge-of-your-seat read.
